November 24th

I praise you to the Lord, the God of Israel, because he has come to his people and redeemed them.

<sup>69</sup> He has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David

<sup>70</sup> (as he said through his holy prophets of long ago),

<sup>71</sup> salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us—

<sup>72</sup> to show mercy to our ancestors and to remember his holy covenant,

<sup>73</sup> the oath he swore to our father Abraham:

*<sup>74</sup> to rescue us from the hand of our enemies,
and to enable us to serve him without fear*

<sup>75</sup> in holiness and righteousness before him all our days.

Luke 1

the Most High;

for you will go on before the Lord to prepare the way for him,

<sup>77</sup> to give his people the knowledge of salvation through the forgiveness of their sins,

<sup>78</sup> because of the tender mercy of our God, by which the rising sun will come to us from heaven

<sup>79</sup> to shine on those living in darkness and in the shadow of death,

to guide our feet into the path of peace.”

<sup>80</sup> And the child grew and became strong in spirit; and he lived in the wilderness until he appeared publicly to Israel

A lit candle is positioned at the bottom right of the frame, with a thin stream of blue smoke rising from it. The smoke billows upwards and outwards, creating a soft, ethereal glow against the solid black background. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

*<sup>20</sup> Now to him who is able to do far more abundantly than all that we ask or think, according to the power at work within us,
